

Did you know?

There is no cure for HIV but treatments are available in the UK.

Did you know?

Treatment for sexually transmitted infections is free in the UK.

Do you know where to get treatment and advice for HIV and sexually transmitted infections?

For free and confidential advice on HIV services available to African communities visit our website:
www.doitright.uk.com or call 0800 0967 500

Did you know?

Did you know?

Africans make up 1% of the UK population and 34% of all people living with HIV in the UK.

Did you know?

You can't always tell if somebody has HIV or a sexually transmitted infection (STI).

Did you know?

You have the right to be yourself – free to make your own decisions, to express yourself and to enjoy sex.

Did you know?

You can say no to sex that you don't want.

Did you know?

HIV testing is freely available in hospitals, sexual health clinics and in some community settings in the UK.

Did you know?

There are two types of HIV tests:
1. results within one hour
2. results in two to three weeks