

African HIV Policy Network (AHPN)
New City Cloisters
196 Old Street
London
EC1V 9FR

The African HIV Policy Network (AHPN) is a strategic national umbrella organisation representing African communities affected by HIV. It brings together mostly African-led organisations and enables Africans to speak with a collective and representative voice on HIV and sexual health policy issues. It acts as an advisory body to the Department of Health, other Government departments, private bodies, Local Authorities and Primary Care Trusts (PCTs).
